FORT BENNING – Lt. Col. Kevin J. Moffett will assume command of the Benning Criminal Investigation Division Battalion from Lt. Col. Kevin R. Clarke during a change of command ceremony at 1 p.m. June 7 at the Benning Club.

The CID Battalion is part of the 3rd Military Police Group, U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command. As the Army's primary criminal investigative organization, CID is responsible for the conduct of criminal investigations in which the Army is, or may be, a party of interest.

Moffett, who was born at Homestead Air Force Base, Fla., was commissioned as an Army second lieutenant following his graduation from Louisiana State University in 1988.

He comes to Fort Benning from Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., where he served as the operations officer at the Joint Readiness Training Center.

He is a veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

He and his wife, Sabrina, are the parents of three children.

Clarke has been reassigned to Iraq, where he will serve as the deputy provost marshal for the multinational corps-Iraq.

Media wishing to attend this ceremony should call the Public Affairs Office to arrange an escort. For more information, call the Public Affairs Office at (706) 545-4591. After duty hours and on weekends, call (706) 545-2218.
